Important Information:

- Drums Lessons are $45 per session/ twice a month; classes last an hour
- Unless otherwise stated, payment is due at the time of service (start of the lesson)
- Payments can be made with cash or via PayPal: nextleveldrums01@yahoo.com
- There is an additional fee if paying with PayPal
- You may pay on a monthly basis, if so, payment is due by the 5th of each month
- Lessons will begin promptly at the scheduled time, no refunds are given due to student tardiness
- The instructor will take every precaution to provide advance notice if a lesson cancellation becomes necessary. If a student has paid in advance, the payment will roll-over to the next lesson at no penalty to the student.

Required Equipment:

A drum set is NOT required to begin lessons, however if you would like to purchase one, expect to pay $500-$700 for a quality beginner drum set. Upon arrival to the first lesson, drummers will receive their first pair of practice drumsticks: Vic Firth 2B, 3A, or SD1 to be determined by the instructor based on students' needs. Students will receive the second pair after the 10th lesson.

A quality practice pad must be purchased, prior to the first lesson. Recommendations are listed below:

Evans Real Feel Practice Pad (12 inch double sided) available at Amazon or Guitar Center

Sound Percussion Labs Practice Pad (12 inch double sided) available at Guitar Center
